Strange Things do Happen. What is the explanation of it? The facts are attested by several reliable

One of the most prominent railroad men in the State and receiver for a great corporation was a guest at the Grand Pacific Hotel. This was but a day or two ago. While he was at the hotel his son and daughter came to take thing generally does it wel'. dinner with him. That evening he verfection and definess. Five said, "Charge me with two extra din-

> Mr. Gores knew the daughter was at the hotel, but he had not seen the son, and for some reason supposed that a girl friend of the daughter had been the third person who took dinner at the notel. There is a rule of the house that the name of every guest must entered upon the register. So Mr. Gores opened: the book to put down two names. He just wrote the name of Miss—, the daughter. Then he thought for a

When my son and daughter were with me at dinner the other evening we were talking of her, and I dare say my son and daughter, whom I left up in the parlor, were talking of her at very moment that name was written. I'm sure I didn't mention her name in the hearing of any clerk."
"No," said Mr. Gores. "It just came

FIVE CHILDREN AT A BIRTH,-All previous records lu Pennsylvania, if not in the country, were smashed to smithereens when Mrs. Davis Rosenberger, a diminutive farmer's wife, gave birth to five bouncing babies,, at her home near Kittanning Pa. Monday

The children, all of whom are well developed and full of animation, are three girls and two boys. They appear to be strong, and the attending physician says that all of them are likely to live and room to Pat the stonich to live and grow up. But the astonished father, who is 40 years old and only five feet tall, has by no means recover-ed from his surprise, though Mrs. Rose berger is quite as well as could be expected, "I thought," said Farmer Rosenberger with a sigh to a neighbor yesterday, "that we were coming to a time of astonishing pluralities when they began to count up the vote for Grow a week ago. But oh, my! I didn't look for anything like this—hard times, and five babies at once!
